Use the following study questions to guide your reading:

Americans in Waiting, Introduction, p. 3-11
- In what ways are citizens and noncitizens unequal? (p. 5)
- The author asserts, "...we have not thought enough about how we treat lawful immigrants after they get here." What evidence does the author provide to support this assertion? (p. 6)
- What are the five ways to become a lawful immigrant? (p. 7)
- How can a noncitizen become a citizen? (p. 8)
- The author asserts, "...for much of its history, America treated lawful immigrants as future citizens, and immigration as a transition to citizenship." Make sure you understand what the author means by this and how he supports this assertion within the chapter. (p. 8-9)
- What were the advantages of filing a "Declaration of Intent"? (p. 9)
- Be able to name and explain the three views of immigration. (p. 9-11)

Immigrant Struggles, Immigrant Gifts, Introduction
- What is a recurring pattern in the nation's immigration history? (p. 1)
- Why did the Founding Fathers support population growth and immigration? (p. 3)
- What was the Naturalization Act of 1790? (p. 3)
- What contributed to "America Fever" in the 1880s? (p. 5)
- What was the role of whiteness in immigration? (p. 7)
- What is Chain Migration, and why was it considered problematic? (p. 11)
- From which countries have the largest numbers of immigrants come to the United States since 2005? (p. 13)

- What three controversies does the immigration debate focus on today? (p. xix)
- What is the relationship between immigration and racism? (p. xix)
- In what ways is immigration an economic issue? (p. xx)
- What are the economic arguments for admitting more immigrants into the country? (p. xx).