Vocabulary:
- Review definitions noted at end of each chapter in text Introducing Moral Theology. The vocabulary list from course documents should be of help with your review or other terms used in this course.
- Review definitions and types of norms and values. Be able to differentiate among the various kinds.
- Be able to distinguish among different moral methods, including deontological, teleological, and consequentialist ethics.
- Be able to offer definitions for each of the theological and cardinal virtues. In addition be able to offer examples of how the virtues work together and help one to lead a happy life.
- Review the terminology associated with euthanasia.
- Define sin, mortal sin, venial sin, envy, anger, pride, greed, gluttony, lust, and sloth.
- Provide two definitions for integrity.
- Define equity, sufficiency, sustainability, and solidarity.

Concepts and theories:
- Review and be able to explain or create lists that explain the following:
  - Just War theory
  - Doctrine of Double Effect
  - Aquinas’ Four Characteristics of a Law.
  - Corporal Works of Mercy

Be able to explain or discuss the following:
- How do culture, authority, and education influence our moral outlook or perspective?
- What is the difference between a morality of obligation and a morality of happiness?
- Explain the difference between invincible and vincible ignorance.
- Explain how humor is a virtue.
- What are the situations in which our personal freedom, and thus our ability to truly make moral decisions, can be limited?
- How can alcohol be used virtuously?
- What is a big picture belief? How do these beliefs affect our life decisions?
- Compare Lucretius’ Epicurean understanding of sexual behavior to the teaching of the Irish Catholic Bishops in "Love is for Life."
- Explain what C.S. Lewis describes as the “fool’s way” and the disillusioned sensible man.”
- Explain why it is that love or charity is the greatest and most enduring of the virtues.
- Explain the responsibilities to both the community in which business is located as well as the responsibilities to stockholders.
- Discuss how and why rights are extended to plants and animals when addressing environmental issues.
- Explain the environmental impact that water bottling plants can have on local communities and the environment.
- Explain why environmental issues are a part of Christian morality.