SOC 331: Module 6 Activity Sheet

Key Terms – Chapter 7
- Social movement
- Countermovements
- Environmentalism
- Ecological accounting
- New social movements
- Sustainable development
- Earth summits
- Global ecology
- Feminism
- Women in Development (WID)
- Gender and Development (GAD)
- Humanism
- Productive/unproductive work
- Feminization of global labor
- Fertility
- Women’s rights
- Cosmopolitan activism
- Social movement unionism
- Food sovereignty
- Fair trade

Key Terms – Chapter 8
- Millennium Development Goals
- Microfinance/microcredit
- World Social Forum
- Bolivarian revolution
- Resource nationalism
- Bolivarian Alternative for the Americas
- Arab Spring
- Resource curse
- Group of 20
- BRIC/BRICS countries
- Financialization
- Sovereign debt crisis
- Bail-out
- Global climate change

Focus Questions
1) What are the main components of the environmental movement?
2) How do local and global interests conflict when it comes to managing the natural environment?
3) What are the differences between WID and GAD?
4) How do women’s rights intersect with other issues such as the global division of labor, environmental conservation, poverty, and fertility?
5) What are some examples to the global conception of food security?
6) What crises is the development project facing at the beginning of the 21st century?
7) What are the causes of these various crises?
8) What are the various forms of resistance to these crises?
9) How are the economies of China and India evolving?
10) What are the current threats to the environment and to sustainability?